As an undergraduate pursuing a BSc (Hons) in Computing and Information Systems at Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka, I am seeking an internship in the IT industry. I bring a youthful, creative, and self-motivated approach, combined with strong problem-solving, multitasking, and leadership skills. I have experience in developing full-stack applications using the MERN stack and mobile applications using React Native. Thriving in team environments and possessing extensive collaborative experience, I quickly adapt to new technologies and embrace challenges with enthusiasm. I am committed to contributing my utmost effort and dedication to the workplace.
